THE ARTIST

About the Work

Robert Grantham makes acrylic and mixed-media paintings about memory, resilience, and what he calls "the sacred made stubbornly contemporary." His surfaces are built like palimpsests: layered text, luminous metallics, and distressed grounds, accented by golds and high-chroma reds.

The vocabulary is old on purpose. Grantham draws formal influence from medieval and early Renaissance devotional art, from manuscript illumination, and from the visual rhetoric of public lettering, and he describes his compositions as icon-inspired. Recurring motifs, among them black suns, haloed orbs, gold fields, and hand-lettered inscriptions, carry that devotional grammar into abstraction.

The practice began as Cardboard Calligraphy by Robert, hand lettering on reclaimed cardboard with an emphasis on sustainability. It has since widened, under the name Robert Grantham Art, into painting on canvas, jute, panel, gessobord, and oil paper. The interest in reclaimed materials persists: one recent Conjunctions painting is made on recycled PET canvas.

Biography

Grantham lives and works in Austin, Texas, with roots in Seminary, Mississippi. He holds a BA in History from the University of Southern Mississippi (2009), and a historian's attention to symbols, sources, and the long memory of images runs through the work. Alongside painting he works as a data analyst and writes essays on art, culture, and public life at rgrantham.substack.com.

SERIES I

Conjunctions

An ongoing series of acrylic and mixed-media abstractions organized around orbs, haloes, and alignments: black suns, gold-rimmed spheres, a cruciform interchange. In astronomy a conjunction is the moment two bodies appear to meet in the sky; these paintings stage such meetings, sometimes serene, sometimes, as two titles put it, under stress. The series also reaches into literature, most directly in The Judge's Dance.

PLATE 01

Aurum Rising, 2026

Acrylic on canvas
24 × 30 × 1.5 in (61.0 × 76.2 × 3.8 cm), portrait
Cat. no. RGA-AR-2026-01

AVAILABLE

To be exhibited: Northwest Hills United Methodist Church, Austin, December 2026

A broad gold arc splits a near-black field, red-orange seams burning along its edges, with a blue lens caught low on the left. Aurum is Latin for gold.

PLATE 02

Conjunction at the Red Shore, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, matte varnish
20 × 24 × 1.5 in (50.8 × 61.0 × 3.8 cm), landscape
Cat. no. RGA-CRS-2026-01

AVAILABLE

To be exhibited: Northwest Hills United Methodist Church, Austin, December 2026

Warm red and gold fields meet a deep blue ground along a hand-inked, white-edged boundary. At the seam, a cluster of tangent orbs crowds together, a large black sphere pressed against an equally large red one, while fine gold spots drift across the red.

PLATE 03

Conjunction of the Black Sun, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, matte varnish
20 × 24 × 1.5 in (50.8 × 61.0 × 3.8 cm), landscape
Cat. no. RGA-CBS-2026-01

AVAILABLE

To be exhibited: Northwest Hills United Methodist Church, Austin, December 2026

A mass of gold impasto breaks across a black ground, two orange orbs nested at its lower edge. Below, a cobalt orb and a dark, blue-rimmed void hang opposite each other, with gold flecks scattered through the black like distant light.

PLATE 04

The Judge's Dance, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, Liquitex matte varnish
12 × 12 in (30.5 × 30.5 cm)
Cat. no. RGA-TJD-2026-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

An abstract interpretation of Judge Holden from Cormac McCarthy's Blood Meridian (1985), made without literal illustration. A black sun and a pale central orb are encircled by seven orbiting forms the artist reads as members of the Glanton Gang. One orb, half black and half light, stands for the Kid: half surrendered to the gang's violence, half keeping a scrap of humanity the Judge can never fully master. Planned in a muted, archaeological palette, the painting resolved instead into vivid orange, gold, and blue. Along the disc's lower rim, a line of small silhouettes dances, recalling the novel's closing scene.

PLATE 05

Conjunction at the Interchange, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, matte varnish
12 × 12 × 1.5 in (30.5 × 30.5 × 3.8 cm)
Cat. no. RGA-CINTCHG-2026-01

AVAILABLE

To be exhibited: Northwest Hills United Methodist Church, Austin, December 2026

A quadrant composition: a gold cruciform interchange, a large white-rimmed black orb, and smaller haloed orbs in red and black.

PLATE 06

Blue Conjunction under Stress, 2026

Acrylic on canvas
12 × 12 × 1.5 in (30.5 × 30.5 × 3.8 cm)
Cat. no. RGA-BCUS-2026-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

Four haloed orbs, deep blue rings around gold and pale centers, hold the corners of a field where pale gold impasto has torn across a red ground, leaving red showing at the upper left.

PLATE 07

Red Conjunction under Stress, 2026

Acrylic on canvas
12 × 12 × 1.5 in (30.5 × 30.5 × 3.8 cm)
Cat. no. RGA-RCUS-2026-01

AVAILABLE

Blue arcs sweep across a red ground beneath a broad mass of tan-gold impasto. Three teal orbs ride the movement: one doubled and backed in black, one ringed in orange at the upper right, one set into a yellow crescent below.

SERIES II

Magnolia Canticle

Hand-lettered calligraphy paired with painted magnolia and landscape imagery. A canticle is a hymn or song of praise drawn from scripture; the magnolia is Mississippi's state flower and state tree, and a fitting emblem for an artist with roots there.

PLATE 08

Magnolia Canticle, No. 1, 2025

Acrylic on canvas, matte varnish
16 × 20 × 1.5 in (40.6 × 50.8 × 3.8 cm), portrait
Cat. no. RGA-MC1-2025-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

Two flowering trees, one bearing deep blue magnolias and the other cream, lean toward a tall brown rock against a gold sky. Looping hand-lettered inscriptions in English, Latin, and German run between them: Misericordia, Rebirth, Lux contra tenebras, "Your past doesn't define you." The artist's first documented sale of an original work.

PLATE 09

Magnolia Canticle, No. 2, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, matte varnish
16 × 20 × 1.5 in (40.6 × 50.8 × 3.8 cm), landscape
Cat. no. RGA-MC2-2026-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

A tall teal marker, hand-lettered in white script, rises from pooled water of ochre, rust, and blue, with white-and-gold magnolias on bent stalks leaning toward it from either side. Its top line reads "Forgiveness is for you, not them," and words including Resilience, Faith, Compassion, and Love are lettered on the marker and across the water.

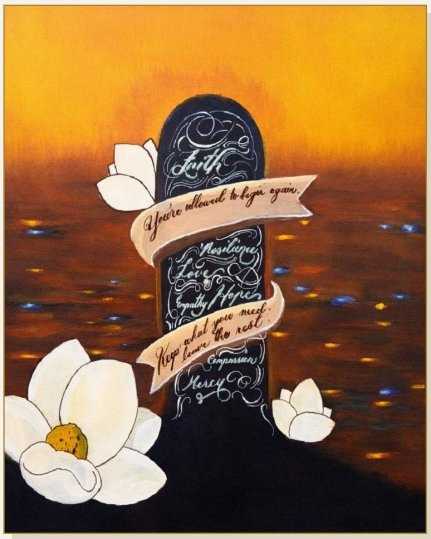

PLATE 10

Magnolia Canticle, No. 3, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, Gamblin Gamvar matte varnish
16 × 20 × 1.5 in (40.6 × 50.8 × 3.8 cm), portrait
Cat. no. RGA-MC3-2026-01

AVAILABLE

To be exhibited: Northwest Hills United Methodist Church, Austin, December 2026

A dark rounded marker rises from gold-lit water, hand-lettered in white with Faith, Resilience, Love, Empathy, Hope, Compassion, and Mercy. Two painted banners cross it: "You're allowed to begin again" and "Keep what you need, leave the rest." Magnolias open in the foreground.

PLATE 11

Magnolia Canticle, No. 4, 2026

Acrylic on jute canvas, matte varnish
16 × 20 × 1.5 in (40.6 × 50.8 × 3.8 cm), portrait
Cat. no. RGA-MC4-2026-01

AVAILABLE

To be exhibited: Northwest Hills United Methodist Church, Austin, December 2026

Two white-and-gold magnolias rise over braided gold roots in a blue-and-gold field. The hand-lettered inscription reads POST TEMPESTATEM RADIX CANIT ("after the storm, the root sings"), its final word partly veiled by a blossom.

PLATE 12

Magnolia Canticle, No. 5, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, Gamblin Gamvar matte varnish
8 × 10 × 0.625 in (20.3 × 25.4 × 1.6 cm), landscape
Cat. no. RGA-MC5-2026-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

A single magnolia opens in deep red against a red disc, its petals rimmed in yellow around a green-gold cone. Behind it, a midnight blue ground carries loops and flourishes of white lettering.

SERIES III

Independent Works

Paintings made outside the named series: icons of the Virgin, a whale drawn as a single curl of color, and a group of square compositions built on the horizon line, banded fields of sky, land, and water.

PLATE 13

Virgin Mary, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, matte varnish
12 × 12 × 1.5 in (30.5 × 30.5 × 3.8 cm)
Cat. no. RGA-VM-2026-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

A head-and-shoulders icon of the Virgin in a deep blue maphorion trimmed with gold ornament, set against a burnished gold ground. The devotional lineage that underpins the abstract work, here stated plainly.

PLATE 14

Neon Cetacean, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, Liquitex matte varnish
16 × 20 × 0.625 in (40.6 × 50.8 × 1.6 cm), landscape
Cat. no. RGA-NC-2026-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

A single sweeping curl of blue and yellow turns through a flat red ground, coiling to a small white flick at its center. The whale is in the movement rather than the outline.

PLATE 15

The Lonely Pier, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, Gamblin Gamvar matte varnish
12 × 12 × 1.5 in (30.5 × 30.5 × 3.8 cm)
Cat. no. RGA-TLP-2026-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

A pier stripped to its X-braced frame runs out from the left beneath a lavender horizon, its legs printing long reflections on the water, with birds off to the right. Painted from the artist's own photograph of a pier on the Bay of St. Louis, Mississippi, left skeletal by Hurricane Katrina.

PLATE 16

Land ho!, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, matte varnish
12 × 12 × 1.5 in (30.5 × 30.5 × 3.8 cm)
Cat. no. RGA-LH-2026-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

A deep blue sky, a thin orange band of land at the horizon, a pale mass of light, and a path of reflected light across dark water.

PLATE 17

Heat at Dusk, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, Liquitex matte varnish
12 × 12 × 0.625 in (30.5 × 30.5 × 1.6 cm)
Cat. no. RGA-HAD-2026-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

A banded horizon: violet-blue above, an orange-gold band at the horizon line, and a warm olive-brown ground below, the paint thinned to a haze at the seam.

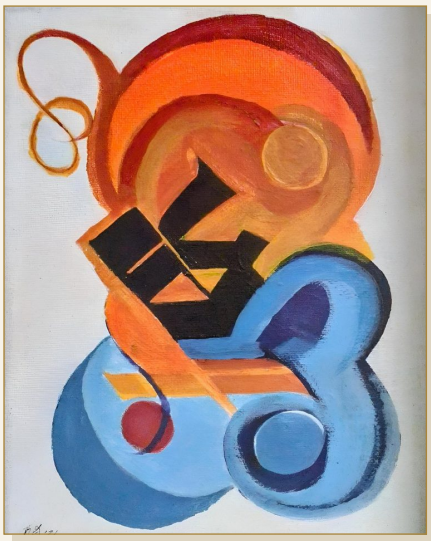

PLATE 18

Enjoying a Good Read, 2026

Acrylic on canvas, matte varnish
8 × 10 × 0.625 in (20.3 × 25.4 × 1.6 cm), portrait
Cat. no. RGA-EAGR-2026-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

Curved bands of red and orange crown two rounded blue forms, with a beveled black block angled across the center and a calligraphic loop trailing off at the upper left. The lettering hand, at work on a shape rather than a word.

PLATE 19

Our Lady of Perpetual Deadlines, 2026

Acrylic on Da Vinci panel, Liquitex matte varnish
6 × 6 × 0.78 in (15.2 × 15.2 × 2.0 cm)
Cat. no. RGA-OLPD-2026-01

PRIVATE COLLECTION

A half-length icon of the Virgin in an ultramarine maphorion trimmed with gold, one hand pressed to her brow and a closed book held in the other, on a textured gold ground with an incised halo, gilded corners, and the abbreviation MP ΘY, the traditional Greek shorthand for "Mother of God." The first of a series of icon-style patron saints of student life.

SERIES IV

Lettering & Works on Paper

Lettering is where the practice began. The hand moves among Copperplate, Blackletter, and modern scripts, with debts to calligraffiti, medieval manuscripts, vintage sign painting, and abstraction.

PLATE 20

In Love, 2025

Acrylic and ink on paper
8 × 11 in (20.3 × 27.9 cm)

PRIVATE COLLECTION

Wildstyle lettering in beveled, interlocking letterforms, banded in yellow and steel gray inside a diamond frame, with fine lines shooting out to terminating dots.

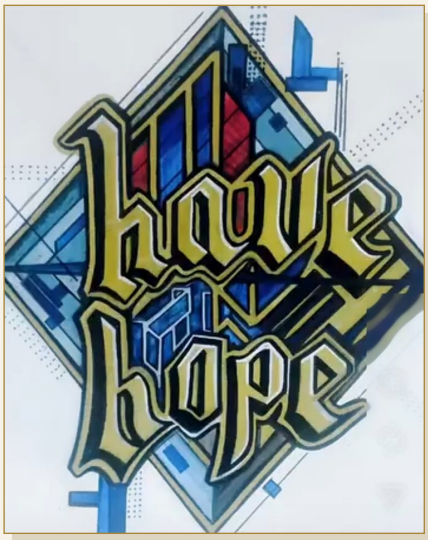

PLATE 21

Have Hope, 2025

Acrylic and ink on paper
8 × 11 in (20.3 × 27.9 cm)

PRIVATE COLLECTION

Sold from the Northwest Hills United Methodist Church exhibition, Austin, 2025

Two words in gold-edged blackletter, have above hope, stacked over a diamond of blue and red geometry, the letters outlined heavily enough to stand off the page.
